

Mesmerized

Then she said
"Every little hesitation is a thought left unsaid
What remains is a silent conversation that goes on in my head"
And I'm lost, In her eyes, Mesmerized
Then her smile
Seemed a sudden indication that she knew my disguise
She said, "Why is there no communication of the heart without lies"
And I'm lost
 In her eyes
 Mesmerized
Listening to her words collide
Shake loose these
Feelings that I try to hide
Feelings that only the lonely deny

 Long lost yearning My heart's learning
 Shadows turning into light
And I'm lost, In her eyes, Mesmerized
She said, "Love takes a strong imagination and it's hard to survive"
All we need is a little motivation to believe we're alive
And I'm lost
 In her eyes
 Mesmerized
Listening to her words collide
Shake loose these
Feelings that I try to hide
Feelings that only the lonely deny

Long lost yearning
My heart's learning
Shadows turning into light

And I'm lost
 In her eyes

Mesmerized

And I'm lost

In her eyes

Mesmerized
